Interplay 2025

Reimagine traditional and contemporary works.

This innovative and collaborative residency will provide early-career opera, music and theatre professionals the unique opportunity to be part of a fully produced opera, The Handmaid's Tale or to workshop new chamber works currently in development.

Join us to be part of the future of opera, chamber orchestra, and chamber music. Together we will reimagine traditional and contemporary works in bold, new ways, helping you shape your artistic vision and advance your career.
